

Platforms

Learning Management Systems are software applications that organize and structure online learning (both asynchronously and synchronously).

Social Media (Facebook, Instagram, Snapchat, YouTube, etc.) has both live, synchronous options and asynchronous options.

Video (Zoom, Google Classroom, Microsoft Teams, etc.)

Interactive Tools

Collaborative documents such as Google Docs

Flipgrid: video discussion experience

Kialo: public discussion and debates (also try Kialo for educators)

Mentimeter: real-time polls, quizzes, word clouds, and Q&A's for interactive presentations and meetings

Padlet: online notice board with functions for collaboration, uploading documents, and creating content

Whiteboard.fi: an online whiteboard tool for classroom use

Create Virtual Content

Canva: create posters, infographics, presentations, social media posts, and more

Blogger: a free site to create and publish blogs

Camtasia: screen recorder and video editor

Ezvid: video reviews, recorder, and editor

Prezi: animated, interactive presentations